thank the many friends who so kindly assisted us during the short illness and death of our beloved husband and father; also those who contributed floral offerings.

Mrs. J. D. Lovelady and Family.

W. H. Williams and son were here from near Kirk this week on business.
Mr. Williams called at this office and asked us to correct his name in the Liberty Bond list. It appeared W. H.
Williamson when it should have been Williams. The News is glad to make the correction.Judge Winters of Tucumcari, deputy U. S. marshal and deputy U. S. attorney, arrested Adolph Reittinger for making sedicious remarks, and his trial was held before U. S. Commissioner Cliff Cisco Tuesday evening. The court found Reittinger over to Federal Grand jury and placed his bond at $2000.00.Dice throwers, commonly known as "crap shooters" were found playing their game last week and arrested by City Marshal Brown. There were three of them all brothers, John, Bill and Sam Doe. They were each fined $25 and costs, which relieved the Doe family of a little useful "dough" to to apply on the streets.SEED FOR SALE—Dwarf and Standard Broom Corn seed, cream and red
